FILM

Cinema Verite ★

Hollywood films are too polished and overworked - often they lack the life and vigor of reality. Cinema Verité, the New Wave of film techniques and ideas from the 1960s, changed the world with gritty realism. It's time to change it again - like Goddard and Truffaut - with real, honest, storytelling. This class is open to actors and filmmakers. Age 16+

When you step into the art gallery, you see the autumn sun hanging heavy on a movie screen, and you smell freshly cut grass, and are offered a bite of watermelon. When film is created alongside sound, food, fragrances, and textures - its meaning is powerfully enhanced. No prior film experience required. Age 16+ Supply list: notebook, pens, pencils, etc.

5wk	9/13-10/11	Tu	7:30p-9:00p	B. McManus	$75
-----	------------	----	-------------	------------	------

Basics of Filmmaking

Every film starts with a good story, but it doesn't stop there. It has to be built, like a house, from the ground up. Have you ever wondered how a film is made? Draw on Eisenstein's (Battleship Potempkin) theory of montage and McCusker's (3:10 to Yuma) mantra of the 'dance of eyes', and edit a short film into reality. Age 16+
